Australia and New Zealand Banking Group Limited
2017 Interim Dividend payable 3 July 2017
Foreign Currency Dividend Payments

ANZ will pay its proposed 2017 Interim Dividend in three different currencies, namely Australian Dollars, Pounds Sterling and New Zealand Dollars ("the designated currencies").

In the absence of the shareholder providing banking instructions in another designated currency to ANZ's Share Registrar by no later than 5:00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time) on 10 May 2017, the following will apply:

- (i) ANZ's proposed 2017 Interim Dividend payable to participating ANZ ordinary shareholders with a registered address in the United Kingdom (including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) or New Zealand will be converted to their local currency at an exchange rate calculated on 12 May 2017 and will be payable in that currency only;
- (ii) cash entitlements in connection with the proposed 2017 Interim Dividend will be payable to all other participating shareholders in Australian Dollars.

If a shareholder wishes to alter the currency in which they receive their 2017 Interim Dividend entitlement, the shareholder must complete and return an appropriate Direct Credit form no later than 5:00pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time) on 10 May 2017. Direct Credit forms received after this time will not be effective to alter the currency of the entitlement in respect of the 2017 Interim Dividend.

Direct Credit forms may be obtained from, and should be returned to, ANZ's Share Registrar as follows:
